SCOPE: Amphibian and Reptile Conservation (ISSN: 1083-446X) [ARC] and the accompanying online edition (ISSN: 1525-9153) is a popularly accessible, peer-reviewed scientific journal of international scope, which is devoted to the worldwide preservation and management of amphibian and reptilian diversity. ONLINE EDITION: The full-text online edition is available FREE-OF-CHARGE as PDF (Portable Document Format) and HTML files at: www.pubmedcentral.nih.gov/. AUDIENCE: ARC is intended for a wide readership from nonprofessional to professional herpetologists, the general public, and scientists. FREQUENCY: ARC publishes two issues per year (semi-annually). FOCUS: ARC concentrates on publishing timely information in the form of feature articles, original papers and data, reviews, reports, short communications, columns, commentaries, book reviews, editorials, and news and notes. DISTRIBUTION: ARC is an open access journal which can, with absolutely no restrictions and/or site registration, be freely accessed (no charge) by anyone with an Internet connection and web browser. The print edition is also available worldwide by subscription as well as quality newsstands, bookstores, and select vendors. Delivery is guaranteed. PUBLISHER: Craig Hassapakis, Amphibian and Reptile Conservation, 2525 Iowa Avenue, Modesto, California 95358-9467, USA; email: publisher@herpetofauna.org; website: www.herpetofauna.org. POSTMASTER: Please send change of address to ARC eight weeks prior to move. COPYRIGHT: All works published in ARC are open access, subject to the terms of the Creative Commons Attribution License (<http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/1.0>). Copyright is retained by the author(s). COMMUNICATION: It is recommended that all correspondence be conducted via email: ARC@herpetofauna.org whenever possible. All other types of correspondence should be directed to ARC using the contact information above (see under publisher). SUBSCRIPTIONS: All paid subscribers receive four consecutively distributed print issues received by postal mail. CATEGORIES: Subscription rate categories are Individual $25 and Institutional $50 (both include postage). All subscriptions outside the US include $15 for shipping and handling to regular subscription rate (Non-US rate: Individual $40 and Institutional $65). BACK ISSUES: Individual copies are available from the publisher for $15 each (Note: Volume 1, Number 1 is out-of-print). Facsimiles (photocopies) are available once issues are out-of-print. Copies of individual articles can be purchased on request; please inquire. DONATIONS: Contributions for the journal are gladly accepted. These specific resources are used to further the conservation of amphibians and reptiles with the goals of the journal. CATEGORIES INCLUDE: Friends of ARC $40, Supporting $60, Contributing $100, Patron $250, Sustaining $500, and Founder (includes lifetime subscription to ARC) $1,000. All other contributors, excluding Founders, receive four consecutively distributed issues. PAYMENT: All journal orders must be paid in US currency drawn on a US bank (check or international money order). WEBSITE: www.herpetofauna.org. PRODUCTION: Manufactured and printed in the United States of America using recycled paper and soy based inks.
